Celebrating the Garden Village of New Earswick

Tues 11 June, 11am to 12.30pm

Folk Hall, New Earswick

Free tickets: yorkfestivalofideas.com

Joseph Rowntree's wish to improve people's living conditions was first realised in 1902 in the garden village of New Earswick, which laid the foundations for the development of social housing in Britain after World War I. Join Campbell Robb, CEO of JRF and JRHT, in conversation with authors John Boughton and Gillian Darley, and learn more. Afterwards, why not stay and take a look around the Folk Hall and join a guided walk at 2pm.

Tansy Beetle: The jewel of York

Tues 11 June, 12.30pm to 1pm

Yorkshire Museum, Museum Gardens

Free, but Museum admission applies.

No booking required.

A small stretch of the River Ouse at York is the last British stronghold of the attractive tansy beetle (Chrysolina graminis). Join Stuart Ogilvy of the Yorkshire Museum to discover more about their behaviour and life cycle. Visit the tansy plants in the Museum Gardens where you can learn how the Tansy Beetle Action Group is helping to maintain the tansy population and secure their long-term survival.
